Pattern Instructions (written in full)

Round 1 – Using Color A

- Begin with a magic ring.
- Work 3 chains (this counts as your first double crochet).
- Make 15 double crochets into the magic ring.
- Pull the ring tight to close the center.
- Join to the top of the beginning chain with a slip stitch.

Round 2 – Using Color B

- Join yarn with a slip knot.
- Make 1 chain.
- Work 1 single crochet in each of the 15 stitches around.
- Join to the first single crochet with a slip stitch.

Round 3 – Still with Color B

- Make 2 chains.
- Skip 1 stitch, and work 1 double crochet halfway (do not finish the stitch).
- In the next stitch, make another double crochet halfway, then yarn over and pull through all loops to close both together.
- Make 3 chains.

- In the same stitch, work 1 double crochet halfway.
- Skip 1 stitch, make another double crochet halfway, then pull through to join both stitches together.
- Make 3 chains.
- Repeat this petal structure all around.
- Join with a slip stitch, then make 3 chains to prepare for the next round.

Final Thoughts

This gorgeous floral square is perfect for creating a full-size afghan, a small baby blanket, or even for joining into larger projects like wall hangings and cushion covers. You can play with soft pastels, bold brights, or muted tones to make it your own.

Stay tuned! I'll be making a PDF version of this pattern available at the end of this post so you can easily download and print it.

Happy crocheting!
